ECO MINI CAMP SERIES

Eco Mini Camp: Feb. 12-13 & 13-14
Parents can get some time for themselves while campers learn about maple syrup making and tree identification from SIU Forestry students. Southern Illinois Audubon Society member Vicki Lang-Mendenhall will lead a birding nature hike. Games, camp activities and a dance party will make this overnight at Touch of Nature a truly sweet time! (Children ages 7-12)

Eco Mini Clan Camp: March 18-19 & 19-20
Parents/guardians and their children will have fun learning about other animal families with Sara Stoneski of Cypress Creek National Wildlife Refuge and SIU student researcher Elliot Zieman. Campers will also enjoy games, outdoor activities and a dance party that will leave you feeling closer to your clan. (Children ages 4-14)

Grand Camp: April 15-16 & 16-17
Grandparents and grandchildren will learn about wildlife contraband from Kenzie Roeder of Crab Orchard Fish & Wildlife. Campers will also have an “otterly” awesome time with Andrew Rutter, SIU student researcher, learning about Illinois otters. Other activities include games, outdoor activities and a dance party that will leave you with memories for a lifetime! (Children ages 7-12)

$65 for overnight
$60 for past eco campers
$50 for additional siblings
$40 for day camper only
$75 for each adult

For more information, call: 618/453-1121

618/453-1121 / tonec@siu.edu / ton.siu.edu